AUDITION WORKSHOP

with Alison Kertz

Thursday, October 31 at 12:30pm
in Studio 4, 672 Hitt St.

Learn auditioning techniques and tips from one of our successful theatre alumna! Alison Kertz is originally from St. Louis, MO. She received her BA in Theatre (Performance) from the University of Missouri in 2017. She then went on to become an Actor Apprentice at Great River Shakespeare Festival in Winona, MN, where she understudied the role of Margaret in their Equity production of Richard III. While there, she also played Mortimer in the Apprentice project, Henry VI: The Rise of Richard.

Two weeks after closing Great River Shakespeare Festival, Alison moved to Glasgow, Scotland, where she undertook and accomplished her MA in Acting at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, which was recently named 3rd in the world for performing arts education. While at the RCS, Alison completed a one month residency at Shakespeare’s Globe in London. Additionally, she was cast as Lepidus/Eros in Antony and Cleopatra with Bard in the Botanics, Scotland’s premier Shakespeare Festival. Alison misses Scotland very much, but is excited to see what adventures await her stateside.
